Mayor Aiello Honors City Volunteers
Lila Ervay is Presented a Key to the City of Olean

October 12, 2021--Olean—William J. Aiello, Mayor of the City of Olean, held a Volunteer Appreciation Pizza Party in Lincoln Square on Friday, October 8, 2021 at 4:00 p.m. Numerous volunteers who serve the City were invited to attend. Guests represented the Litter Control Group, the Downtown Garden Beautification Group, the Senior Center and the Bartlett House.

Longtime volunteer Lila Ervay was presented a key to the City for her many years of working litter control. As he presented the key Mayor Aiello said, "This key to the City of Olean is presented to Lila Ervay for her dedication and service to our community; for organizing and coordinating the City of Olean Neighborhood Preservation Committee; and for fighting litter throughout Olean for 24 years."

Mayor Aiello added, "Olean is a great community and our volunteers work very hard to enhance our quality of life. From organizing activities at the Bartlett House and Senior Center to working our gardens and keeping our streets clean, Olean is a much better place because of their hard work and commitment. On behalf of the Common Council and the residents of Olean, I offer our thanks and appreciation for a job well done."
