

Empire State Development

New York's Tourism Return-to-Work Grant Program.

Empire State Development has launched a required eligibility screening tool to determine if your business is eligible for the program. If your business passes the prescreen for eligibility, you will be sent a full application to complete no later than April 2022.

Click here for program information, including guidelines and click here for the required eligibility screening tool. We hope this program helps to grow tourism in New York State.